New Chancellor Already in Trouble

(International News Service.)

Amsterdam, Oct. 31.—A storm of opposition already has developed in Germany to the appointment of Count Von Hertling as chancellor, according to advices reaching here today. The socialists and liberals are flatly against him because of his known stand against parliamentary government. The fact that the emperor did not consult any representatives of the Reichstag before the appointment has added to the antagonism of a large number of the members of that body.

(International News Service.)

Baltimore, Oct. 31.—German agents are believed to be responsible for the $5,000,000 fire which swept Baltimore harbor early today. Ten stevedores, who jumped from a burning ship to save their lives, are still missing. Two of the finest piers of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad were completely destroyed. A British steamship sank in the middle of the harbor where it had been towed after bursting into flames.

The fire broke out in five different places simultaneously. Piers 8 and 9 were completely destroyed. They represent a loss of $1,500,000 and their contents, mostly war materials awaiting shipment to the allies, were valued at $3,000,000. The steamer which was lost and its cargo were valued at $500,000.

Heroic work by firemen saved pier No. 10 which was loaded with wheat. J. M. Davis, vice-president of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, early today stated that in his opinion the blaze was "without doubt of incendiary origin."

Local police officials began immediately an investigation of the report of their watchman who saw five or six men jump from pier 9 just as the flames broke out.

The fire was still burning at several places early today, but was under control.

Positive evidence that the fire was of incendiary origin was given by the Baltimore & Ohio railway guards stationed at the piers. These men stated that a few seconds before the flames broke out, they saw what appeared to be rockets going up in half dozen places on the pier. Muffled explosions followed and the flames came immediately.

The boy had been driver for the Lehman Furniture and Talking Machine Company. The woman drowned before assistance could be rendered.

Albany Students Enthusiastic Over Goodrich Game

The students of the Albany high school are showing great interest in the game Friday on the local grounds between the Albany high eleven and the Goodrich football team of Huntsville. Enthusiasm is running high. Although the two schools have been rivals in football for a number of seasons, the best of spirit exists between them. It is believed that a large number of Goodrich supporters will accompany the team. The Albany aggregation, although light, has always made a strong showing against Goodrich, and a battle royal is expected. The team is practicing daily for the game and expects to be in good condition by Friday.

Passenger Tickets and Freight Bills To Pay War Tax

All persons who travel on the railroads, or who ship freight will be affected by the new war tax measure which becomes effective on and after November 1, as railroad tickets and freight bills will bear a tax, the amount of such tax being based on the amount to be paid for such transportation.

All railroad tickets purchased on and after November 1 which cost over 35 cents will be taxed.

All freight bills will be taxed, but the tax for freight under 49 cents will be only one cent.

Comptroller A. P. Otterson of the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis Railway has just prepared a pamphlet in which is incorporated the new revenue law applicable to railroads, and this is being placed in the hands of the railroad agents charged with the collection of such revenues for the government in order that there may be no confusion, and that the public may be promptly served.

The law says:
A tax of 3 per cent of the amounts paid for the transportation of property by freight shall be collected.

A tax of one per cent for each 20 cents or fraction thereof paid for transportation of parcels by express shall be collected.

A tax of 8 per cent of the amount paid for transportation of persons and a tax of 10 per cent of the amount paid for seats, berths and staterooms in parlor cars, sleeping cars or vessels shall be collected.

ALBANY SCHOOL CHILDREN TO GIVE BIG FOOD PARADE THURSDAY AT TWO

PAGEANT WILL FORM AT THE GORDON SCHOOL BUILDING AND PROCEED THROUGH FOURTH TO MOUNTAIN, THENCE TO SECOND AVENUE AND BACK TO POINT OF ORIGIN.

YOUNGSTERS IN COSTUME

MANY BANNERS, WITH APPROPRIATE INSCRIPTIONS, WILL BE CARRIED. TEACHERS FORM FOOD COMMITTEE AND WILL HELP HOOVER.

An elaborate food conservation parade, for the stimulation of interest in the great drive that National Food Administrator Herbert C. Hoover is making this week in behalf of the husbanding of the nation's food resources, will be staged tomorrow afternoon by students of the Albany public schools.

The parade will form at 2 o'clock at the Gordon school building and will proceed down Fourth avenue to Mountain street, up Mountain to Second avenue, up Second avenue to Gordon school, where the children will form a hollow square and present a pantomime with five settings—Uncle Sam Reviewing His Bountiful Harvest; the Appeal From the Soldiers and Sailors; the Allies Come Seeking Help From the U. S.; Pledge to Uncle Sam; Grand Finale, For Victory.

Hundreds of banners, many of them bearing especially appropriate inscriptions, and all prepared by the school children in childish words will be carried in the parade. The youngsters will be in costume, dressed as farmers, housewives, butchers, bakers and miners, while the girls of the domestic science class will wear the costume of the Food Conservation Service.

The parade was planned and perfected by the Albany public school teachers, who have formed a food committee with the following officers: President, Miss Amy Milligan; treasurer, Miss Orr; parade committee Mrs. Kimball Jones and Miss Martha Weaver.

Ship Building to Be Speeded Up

(International News Service.)

Washington, Oct. 31.—The nation's program for top speed in the gigantic task of fitting out steel ships was whipped into shape today at a conference of Atlantic ship builders, members of the United States shipping board, and high officials of the navy department. The session is for the adoption of a policy that will mean the quicker delivery of ships even at the sacrifice of other considerations.

The United States will turn out 1,000,000 tons of shipping in the next four months and by the end of 1918 6,000,000 tons will have been constructed.

Duck Crop is Fine, Say Local Hunters

When the hunting season opens tomorrow, local sportsmen will not be forced to contend themselves with plugging an occasional cotton tail or some 25 quail or less. There is better game in sight. Hunters report that the river is full of ducks—thousands of them and of seven different varieties. Early tomorrow morning it is quite likely that many Nimrods will get out their old fuses and go forth to slaughter the festive duck, thus helping Mr. Herbert C. Hoover along in his campaign to spare the pigs and calves.

Much ammunition is being bought today for tomorrow's offensive.

Rome, Oct. 31.—General Cadorna is fast lining up his forces for a determined stand against the Germans and Austro-Hungarians along the Tagliamento river. Dispatches from the front this afternoon declared that the Italian commander is master of the situation now and that he is checking the enemy in effective fashion. Italian cavalry continues to harass and hold up advance detachments of the Teutons. Great confidence is expressed by all the papers in General Cadorna.

(International News Service.)

London, Oct. 31.—The eyes of the world are turned today on the Venetian plain in Italy, centering on the Tagliamento river, where there is every reason to believe the greatest battle in the history of the war soon will be fought.

The Teutonic army, already in possession of Udine, today continued its march towards the river. Another movement is on the north where Von Buelow's forces have almost reached the upper Tagliamento.

Along the Tagliamento river and not far from Udine, General Cadorna's forces are slowly retreating. In the meantime, British and French assistance is being hurried to the scene of the impending conflict. Everywhere, military authorities say, political effect of the enemy drive in Italy is rapidly becoming apparent. The political viewpoint brings out the determination to stand firm and save Italy.

Milk and Price

(From Hoard's Dairyman.)

The dairy farmers have asked a fair price for their milk and objections have been raised in many cities against them. The government has urged the dairymen not to sell their cows, because it is important that we have an adequate milk supply. On the whole, the dairy farmers have kept their herds, weeding them out a little closer than usual. Many were contemplating reducing the sizes of their herds or disposing of them, unless the price of milk was materially increased. We have reason to believe that the price to be paid for milk the next six months will encourage the dairy farmer and lead him to provide an adequate supply of milk. This is what the nation desires, and must have. The little noise made by some of the daily papers and persons holding political positions is of little importance.

If these would-be protectors of the welfare of the city people would inform themselves upon the cost of producing milk and its value as a food compared to other food products, they would become a help to their country, instead of a hindrance. Mr. Herbert Hoover, who has witnessed the calamity that has come to the belligerent nations of Europe, because of an inadequate milk supply, is urging the saving of dairy cows and a larger production of milk. The dairy farmer is just as patriotic as any other citizen, but he will not knowingly continue to milk cows at a loss.

If the consumer desires the farmer to produce milk he must be willing to pay him a price sufficient to cover the cost of production. Milk at 13 cents a quart, which will be the retail price in many of the large cities, is the cheapest animal food or the market. It is cheaper than beef, pork, mutton, or fowl. Two quarts of milk furnish more nutriment than a pound of meat. The reasonable consumer cannot expect the milk producer to furnish him foods far below the cost of other food products.

What should concern the people of the city is an ample milk supply. Price with them should be of secondary consideration. The important thing is milk. Let the agitators inform the people of the city that milk is still a cheaper food than meat and that the producer is receiving no more for his milk than its cost of production warrants. (Adv.) 30-2

AMUSEMENTS

DELITE AND STAR THURSDAY.
Youth Wins Over Riches in Mutual's "A Bit of Kindling."

That most girls would rather be a young man's darling than an old man's slave, is axiomatic. Girls have been proving it since time immemorial.

It remains for Jackie Saunders, the pretty little "tomboy of the screen," to illustrate why and wherefore of the adage, in her sensational rejection of rich old Cyrus Van Hook with his doddering caresses, for dashing debonnaire young Jimmy Morgan whom she supposes to be a penniless youth, but who is in reality the son of wealth.

Miss Saunders, who is starred in a new Mutual-Horkheimer production, "A Bit of Kindling," does the best work in this play that she has ever done for the screen. She is a fighting virago one minute and a charming young woman in love the next—a new girl with nothing but trouble and a daintily dressed debutante before the end of the story.

Talk about adventure! Jackie Saunders runs the gamut of newspaper alley, high jinks with the bloom of youth and innocence still fresh upon her. When she captivates young Morgan and his millions nobody is at all astonished. It is the most natural thing in the world.

MASONIC THEATRE.

Allen & Kenna's "Aviation Girls" put over another good show at the Masonic theatre last night. Without a doubt this is one of the best tab companies that has been seen at this popular playhouse this season. The musical numbers were well received, and the Bonita Quartet harmony singers are a distinct hit of this show. Also Trix Deadrick and his banjo, who deserves special mention.

Tonight there will be a complete change of bill. "The Wrong Flat" being the bill offered. The quartet will be heard in new and up-to-date songs. This is a blackface bill and is guaranteed to please. Regular pictures will be run in connection with the show.

Kings Without Countries

By G. Kay Spencer
(International News Service.)

FERDINAND, CZAR OF ROUMANIA.

Dacia, the name, recalls to the Latin a vision of a Roman world and Dacia, its colony. When the Emperor Trajan wished to chastise a royal offender he was brevetted King of Dacia—in modern parlance, Roumania.

Roumania it is still, and the crown, as of yore, still is potent with the curse of the Roman leige. The latest victim of Roumanian suzerainty is Ferdinand, the king of the House of Hohenzollern-Sigmaringen.

Time was when Bucharest, the Paris of the East, was the Mecca for brilliant officers and gay night life. Statesmen, neophytes in the game, learned the ropes easiest in the Balkan capital of many diversions. Demi-mondaines flurried through the salons with the youngsters of the court. State secrets and guarded information changed hands under the heavy influence of painted women and somnolent wines. The society of the court permeated the capital city. But the life of the set was the wife of Ferdinand, the Crown Princess Marie, the daughter of Alfred, Duke of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha.

At the inception of the great war a pressure immediately began to manifest itself at Bucharest as the envoys, intriguers and spell-binders of the opposing belligerents congregated to influence the country to their respective sides.

King Carol I, on October 10, 1914, peacefully breathed his last at Sinaia in the shades of the Carpathians. Ferdinand, his nephew, immediately ascended to the throne. The family of Ferdinand had already endeared themselves to the Roumanian proletariat, but ill feeling soon began to appear as the new king steadfastly refused to make war on his royal kinsman, Attila, once known as Wilhelm, Kaiser of Germany. The people, Latins and pro-Ally, clamored for war on the side of the French, and the general staff persistently demanded war on the central empires. And, in truth, the strategical situation seemed to warrant a declaration of war at the time.

Hungarian Transylvania appeared to lie at the mercy of a determined conqueror and this territory is populated by Roumanians in the ratio of two to one. Bulgaria, too, must not be allowed to conquer, for there stood a bitter animosity between the two kingdoms, the outgrowth of the Roumanian land grab immediately after the Balkan wars, when Bulgaria sought for her spoils against the entire Balkan alliance.

It was in the early summer of 1916 that Ferdinand was influenced by his staff to enter the conflict. The die was cast on August 27, 1916, simultaneously with the Italian advent into the struggle.

A Talk With a Decatur Man

Crawford Carter of 120 E. Pond St. Tells of an Interesting Experience.

There is nothing like a talk with well-known people for giving hope and encouragement to the anxious sufferer from the dread kidney disease. We, therefore, give here an interview with a Decatur man:

"I had a dull, steady ache in the small of my back and the kidney secretions were unnatural," says Mr. Carter. "I had headaches and dizzy spells and could see small, black specks in front of me. After sitting an hour or so, my back got so sore and stiff I could hardly get up again. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Long's drug store, strengthened my back and regulated my kidneys."

TONS OF COAL

The Remarkable
Haulage Record of a Remarkable Railroad—

DURING the past sixteen years the L. & N. has hauled through the South 133,796,950 tons of coal, for industrial and domestic purposes. If this vast tonnage were loaded into L. & N. modern, all-steel 50-ton coal cars it would require 2,675,939 such cars to hold the coal. If these cars were coupled they would make a single train extending practically around the world. Good service at remarkably low rates was rendered on this enormous volume of traffic which involved millions of detail and supplied lucrative employment and support to hundreds of thousands of people of the South. Increased facilities are added as fast as L. & N. earnings permit. Coal is essential to industry and personal comfort. It is therefore a commodity carrying an extremely low freight rate. And yet during sixteen years 32.5 per cent of L. & N. freight service was rendered to the people of the South on this necessity at an extremely low rate. This is practical, constructive co-operation. In addition to distributing this enormous amount of coal, the L. & N. paid $43,082,955.39 for fuel which has afforded employment and financial revenue to the coal mines of the South, and has been the means of distributing millions of dollars among the merchants and manufacturers.

Somebody said that it couldn't be done
But he, with a chuckle, replied
That "maybe it couldn't," but he

So he buckled right in with the trace

On his face. If he worried he hid it.
He started to sing as he tackled the

That couldn't be done--and he did

Somebody scoffed: "Oh, you'll never

At least no one ever has done it."
But he took off his coat and he took

FIRED GREEK KING GAVE

KAISER ALLIED SECRETS.

London, Oct. 31.—From the text of telegrams exchanged between Constantine of Greece and Emperor William before the king's abdication, the deciphering of which will be completed shortly by the Greek government, it develops that Constantine, "to put it mildly, was a German agent," says a Reuter dispatch from Athens today.
"The king promptly cabled the emperor all information of a military or political nature received from Greek diplomats accredited to the entente powers and from Greek officers at Salonica," continues the dispatch.

"The organization of bands was directed from Berlin." The emperor ordered the formation of bands of 5-000 men to cut Gen. Sarraill's communications and harass the rear of his troops."

BUTTREY'S

THE HOME OF FROLA SET CORSET

More Coats and Suits Arrived This A. M.

AND GO ON SALE AT ONCE, COME EARLY

Our buying power is no myth. Our two stores, leaders in their respective communities and North Alabama backed by "High Credit" and consuming large quantities of merchandise, are indeed a factor in N. Y. markets, and with Mr. Buttrey on the grounds, we have actually secured the best values positively ever offered to the public by this house or any other firm within the scope of many miles.

COATS

Coats of infinite variety and in no end of pretty styles, they are just received. Made of Pom Pom, Broadcloth, Boliva, Velour, etc. Have the big Shawl Collars of fur and deed cuffs and bottom trims of rich, luxuriant fur. The prices of those Coats are just a little short of marvelous. Mr. Buttrey got them with ready cash from manufacturers who need money. We are passing out these values to our friends.

Come to see them, you are sure to find what you want.

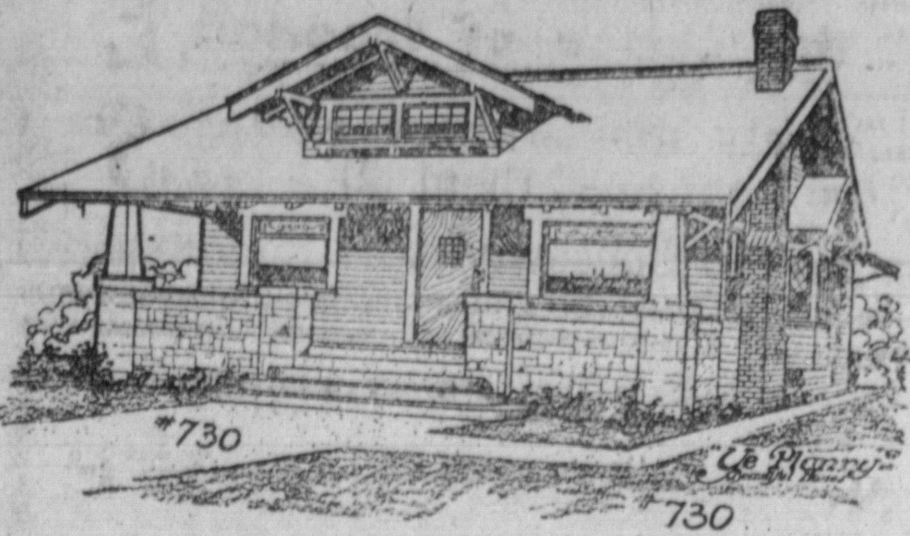

SUITS

Another big shipment this a. m. and they are indeed beauties. Mr. Buttrey got soaking wet in buying these Suits, rainy morning and very few buyers out, so these manufacturers could not afford to see him go out without buying. Mr. Buttrey set his price and finally they let him have the Suits, and remarked as he went out "hope his credit is no good so we can't ship them." But ladies those Suits are here. They are of Broadcloth and have the long new roll collars of fur. They come in all the new shades, button and belt trims. At prices that are less than half.

Attractive, But Not Conspicuous

A little thought in planning has made this design very attractive. Nothing conspicuous or glaring, but with many unusual features for a small inexpensive cottage.

The front porch columns grouped on brick pedestals with stone caps, and the heavy brackets under eaves are prominent features which relieve the severeness of the exterior. The flower boxes under the windows give opportunity for future enhancement.

Special attention is paid to the proper ventilation as the plans call for 10 windows. The interior has five well arranged rooms, with hall and connecting hall. Large closets throughout.

To those wanting a small home with well proportioned exterior lines this home will make its appeal.

WHEN you wish to furnish your new home, don't fail to call and inspect our twenty three furnished rooms on SECOND FLOOR. You may find valuable suggestions here.

Does Renting Pay?

First we will take the man who is paying $15.00 per month. We figure ten years because there is any number of men in Albany and Decatur who have been renting that long.

Twelve months rent at $15.00 is $ 180.00

Ten years' rent at $180.00 is $1,800.00

What have you to show for it? (Wait until you miss a month.) A big sign hung on the door—"FOR RENT," by some real estate man or an individual who just had a little more nerve than you had ten years ago.

You have rented ten years and paid for a house and lot which is still there—so are you, and still paying $15.00 per month to get to stay.

Let us explain our Monthly Payment Plan and help you to be the owner of a HOME, not a PLACE.

Oklahoma City Mayor Says Buy a Home

The following endorsement of the Buy-a-Home movement is worthy of consideration. It aptly tells what home building will accomplish for a city. The endorsement reads:

Fellow Citizens:—

I firmly believe that "the home owner is the city builder." I am for the man who makes up his mind to own his own home—grits his teeth—goes ahead and does.

Buying a home is much like marrying. A man takes unto himself new responsibilities and at once becomes a better all-round citizen—a more valuable asset to his city. And that is the kind of man that you and I want in Oklahoma City.

Because of these facts I want to see the "Buy A Home" movement spread like wildfire over Oklahoma City.

Employers should talk it to their men. Ministers should preach sermons on it. The newspapers should hold boost it. Our schools should teach it. Lodges and all civic organizations should do all in their power to help the good cause along.

No live, red-blooded Oklahoma citizen will be a "slacker" in this great movement. All together now—as before—for civic, economic and social good of the community—"Buy a Home."

ED OVERHOLSER, Mayor.

Everything in Hardware for Builders

It is the most important to select the best hardware for that new home or building. That brings you here, for we make a point of carrying nothing but the best builder's hardware that adds not only to the beauty of a building but to its selling value as well.

The Sash and door Locks, Hinges, Etc., are a very small part of a building, but will repay many times for the cost and trouble of proper selection. Cheap goods are a continual source of trouble and worry.

We are prepared to name interesting prices on the complete hardware for any style of building from the humble cottage to the largest office building.

Yes sir! We also sell the best building Tools—all moderately priced.

COTTON SEED PRODUCTS UNDER FOOD CONTROL

Commissioner of Agriculture James A. Wade is out with a letter explaining President Wilson's proclamation putting cotton seed products under government control.

The letter is as follows: "President Wilson's proclamation putting cotton seed products under the food control and providing for licensing ginners, buyers of seed and oil mills has created a fear on the part of the cotton growers throughout the South that it will tend to reduce the price of cotton seed to such an extent as to put it below a parity of other products, and thereby tend to discourage the production of cotton another year."

"There is no provision in the food bill that will permit the naming of a maximum price that may be paid to the farmer or to force him to sell at any given time or price. The licensing of buyers and oil mills, restricting them to a reasonable profit and regulating them to the amount of stock they may have on hand, does tend to eliminate or regulate the independent buyers, which has a tendency to take the keen interest out of the market and allow the price to sag of its own weight."

"The matter was discussed before the food administration committee by commissioners of agriculture, Farmers Union officials, and oil mill representatives at Washington October 15 and 16. It was agreed that suspension of operations of the law was impossible in view of the fact that the proclamation was made and became effective Oct. 5. There remained nothing else to do but promulgate the best possible rules and regulations in carrying into effect the purposes and intent of the law. This was done and will become operative in the near future. The effect it will have on the seed market remains to be seen. Farmers will be allowed to hold their seed for any length of time or purpose they desire. Independent buyers may be allowed to enter the market and buy not to exceed one hundred and fifty tons without regulation, unless the privilege has been stricken out since the conference."

Grain Plentiful.

"The large yield of corn this year seems to have allayed all fear, for the present, of a grain shortage in the opinion of Mr. Hoover. He gives as his opinion that the greatest shortage will be in fats and oils, and that the shortage will be acute by next April or May. This being the case, a market for surplus corn, beans and soy can best be had by feeding hogs and cattle."

"The European countries are killing off their breeding animals at such a rate as to deplete their stock in three more years. America will have to produce meat and fats for the countries in Europe during the war and for at least five years thereafter. In addition to furnishing them a supply of breeding stock after the war, a wise farmer will get into the live stock business as fast and efficiently as he can. It is the best opportunity ever offered to American farmers and those who grasp it first will get the most out of it."

You Can Serve Your Country By Saving

Cook with care, buy local foods, serve just enough, use what is left, don't waste a thing and serve the cause of freedom Conservation of food will help win the war; eat plenty wisely and without waste, save the wheat, meats, fats, milk, sugar and fuel, for the soldiers at the front need them all.

Today the United States Food Administration calls to arms the housewives.

Food conservation is the duty of not only the housewife but of every man, woman and child, for wheat, meat and fats are urgently needed for the sustenance of our allied armies and relief of French and Belgian civilian population.

The allies depend on us for food and with greater right than they have ever had before, because they are our comrades in arms, are fighting with us for democracy and liberty.
